STREET IMPROVEMENTS

The present stretch of good weather is a great help to the contractors engaged in resurfacing Pleasant street from Seventh to Second, with concrete. The work of scarifying has proceeded rapidly, and when finished, the resurfacing and concreting will follow, in due order. The contractors are making every effort to hurry the work along.

PARIS MAN FINED IN LEXINGTON COURT.

J. L. Todd, of Bourbon county, was fined $15 and costs in Justice Charles M. Parrish's Court, in Lexington, on a charge of exceeding the speed limit on the Paris pike. He was cited to appear in court by County Motorcycle Policeman Frank Hall. Todd paid the fine without the case going to trial.

A NEW PROBLEM.

Paris druggists and others who handle various brands of chewing gum may soon be confronted by a vexing problem, which may give them some concern. Under a recent ruling chewing gum that claims to be good for the digestion or for the throat comes under the Government heading of patent medicines, and is therefore liable for an extra penny tax.

COMPLIMENTS PARIS MAN.

The Stanford Interior Journal publishes the following complimentary reference to a well-known Paris business man: "Mr. W. F. Lee, of Paris, was in the city this week and paid this office a call. Mr. Lee married in this county many years ago, his wife being a Miss Baugh, of the Southern End. He has lived in several States since he left Lincoln county, but it matters not where he is he always feels a desire to come back 'home,' he says. He is in the lumber business and is doing well, we are glad to say."

LITTLEJOHN CARNIVAL CO. GOES TO BIG STONE GAP.

The Littlejohn Carnival (now familiarly known as "The Workman's Chautauqua") concluded a very successful week's engagement in this city Saturday night. During the week the grounds were crowded each night. The attendance was far above the ordinary, showing that a clean, orderly and popular amusement enterprise like the Littlejohn carnival, is bound to receive the approval of the people. The Carnival Co. left Sunday night for Big Stone Gap, Va., to fill a week's engagement.

BLACKBERRIES ON MARKET

Luscious blackberries, the first of the season, have appeared on the Paris market, retailing at fifty cents per quart. The supply at present comes from the South, where the season is more advanced, but before very long the Nicholas county product will be on the market. Dealers predict there will be plenty of blackberries from Central Kentucky this year.

The fields and roads in Bourbon and surrounding counties have been lined with the white blooms, and the local picking should be good. Prices at present are about the same as they were last year. The high price of sugar and the scarcity of that article may play an important part in determining the quantity of fruit canned and preserved this year by housekeepers.

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Practically every teacher in the Paris City School will be in some educational institution this summer. This shows a splendid progressive spirit among the teachers in the City School.

With the opening of the fall term the addition to the building will be completed and completely furnished. The two grades that have been reporting in the afternoon will have morning sessions. With the new enthusiasm that will come into the school on account of summer school study of the teachers, and with the new building completed and the grounds clean and beautiful, which have been torn up so long on account of the construction work, we are all looking forward to a great year next year.

The office of the Paris High School will be open next week every day from 10:00 to 12:00, in the morning, and from 2:00 to 4:00 in the afternoon. If any parent or student desires to know anything about the school for the next year I shall be glad to have them call during these hours.

NATURAL BRIDGE EXCURSION

The first Sunday excursion from Cincinnati to Natural Bridge via Paris over the L. & N., was well patronized. A double-header train of fourteen coaches carried the excursionists to the Bridge, where they spent the time sight-seeing and "communing with Nature." Several stopped over in Paris to spend the day with friends and relatives.
